DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Hobbs School is located on the south side of Maryland Route 474 in Hobbs, Caroline County.

The structure is one story frame built on brick plinths and has a single room rectangular plan. On the main facade (north elevation) are two entrances each with a gable shed roof. Between the two entrances is a 6/6 pane sash window with a flat shelf wood lintel and louvered shutters. The three bays on the east and west sides have identical windows. The gable has a small amount of barge board. On the south gable is a shed addition with a single pitch roof.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Hobbs School is significant as a late 19th century frame school building, for it illustrates the origins of public education in Caroline County. The building itself is a good example of the care with which structures were built in the period as well as the small embellishments which distinguish the builder of the period.
